KOCHAVIAH

1968

The Gemarah teaches us that no matter how much you give, your intention is of prime importance because we originally were created equal and are still considered as such.

Our national unity which at times has been a voluntary phenomena and at other times a burden forced upon some has endured nevertheless so that we hold it dearly today. The State of Israel is being maintained through national unity and can only continue to do so if we do not divide.

The past four years have also been a unifying experience for us. For one they have placed us in a certain mold and no matter how varied some of the results may seem, a unifying thread unites us all. Values we have learned and the Jewish ideals we cherish are things we will need to guide us through the years long after college is forgotten.

The lessons we learn from the Bible never cease to be applicable to us today. We must accept each other as equals despite what seem to us as differing qualities, in order to maintain unity.

אחד המרבה ואחד הממעט, ובלבד שיכוון לבו לשמים... (ברכות ה')

DEDICATION

In dedicating our yearbook in honor of Mrs. Esther Zuroff we have chosen to recognize one of Stern's unsung heroines. In her capacity as placement coordinator she is known to be helpful and efficient, and as a link between the students and the administration she is a warm human being whose dedicated efforts on behalf of the girls are gratefully received.

Not being directly connected with academic life, yet being an integral part of the school has not kept her from developing friendships with the students. We are very proud of such relationships because it helps to make college seem less impersonal.

The time has come to recognize a vital force in our college community without whom life these past four years would have been lacking the smiling warmth of a wonderful person.

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

During the past four years we have all lived together, studied together, and matured together. Now, at graduation, we go our separate ways, and for most of us, only the pictures in this yearbook will serve as reminders of our former classmates and of our life at Stern. I hope that you will all appreciate this book as a mirror of our senior class.

I would like to thank the people who worked so very hard and who helped me so very much in the preparation of this book. First, Ruthie Voehl, for her tremendous amount of work on the senior pictures and the faculty section. Second, Mimi Fischer, not only for her artwork, but also for her good humor and encouragement throughout the year. Third, the 14th floor maids, for not disposing of the scattered dummy sheets, the countless pictures, and the piles of ad blanks and information sheets which spent the year on the beds, desks, and floor in 14 F. Fourth, Judy Singer, for a job well done. And finally, two special people, without whose help there would have been no yearbook, Tina Levine and Shaye Cohen.

Despite the hard work, the unbelievable lack of cooperation, the sleepless nights, the overwhelming problems, and the burden of responsibility—no part of this yearbook was as difficult as this one page. There are no words which properly express our thoughts as we remember Ida.

We would like to honor the memory of Ida Slivko as we face the end of our college life. We regret that she could not have been among us, for those who knew her knew a lovely person who was a friend to many here.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

MESSAGE FOR KOCHAVIAH 1968

I take pleasure in extending warmest congratulations to the senior class of Stern College for Women upon your achievements for graduation, and my best wishes for fulfillment in your future undertakings.

You have had the advantages of a unique educational opportunity to unify in your development the intellectual stimulus of arts and sciences and the spiritual strength of the heritage of Judaism. As you go forward to assume your roles in home, career, and community, you can have an immense influence for good.

I am confident that you will meet this challenge with distinction, dedicating yourselves to a lifetime of service to the Jewish community and all humanity.

Sincerely yours,

Samuel Belkin
President

Greetings by Mr. Max Stern to KOCHAVIAH,
Stern College for Women Yearbook

It is always a special pleasure for me to send greetings to the graduating class at Stern College for Women. In these days when the young people of our country face great new challenges, I want also to express my confidence that the members of the class of 1968 will go forward to assume their responsibilities with a keen sense of values and a real dedication to humanity.

The ideal of Stern College is to provide its students with intellectual development through the arts and sciences and with the spiritual strength of our Judaic heritage. In the full lives that lie ahead for each of you, in your roles in the home, in the professions, in the community, I am sure that you will continue to grow and to make your contributions which will reflect honor on yourselves and your Alma Mater.

I extend to each of you my warmest congratulations and very best wishes.

M E S S A G E
Stern College Yearbook
1968

In a world in which strife and violence seem to have become, one hopes temporarily, accepted and sometimes preferred modes of operation, it is most commendable that the senior class has seen fit to adopt, as its yearbook theme, the concept of "Unity".

The key to unity is communication, even as the Biblical story of the Tower of Babel relates. And Stern College, dedicated to education on all levels of life is uniquely programmed to provide lines of communication, not only among contemporaries, but between generations. Life and history flow continually and do not exist as fragmented quanta in time. The present is a continuation, not a rejection, of the past.

It is our hope that the experience of Stern College has provided you with the knowledge and the warmth to reach out to all people everywhere with the message of Judaism -- union of all the kingdom of the one God.

MESSAGE FROM DR. PRIMER

Not too many years ago baccalaureate speakers invariably studied their talks with oratorical references to the "world outside" into which the graduate was about to enter. Such rhetorics of course implied that the college had for four years served as a kind of sheltering cocoon. Now at Commencement, the callow student was to be suddenly thrust into the cruel society which lurked so menacing just beyond academe.

This naive model now lies far behind us. The myth - or the reality - of the ivory tower is smashed and the real world with all its stark problems and beckoning promise has moved into the very heart of the campus. Learning is living and education a vital interaction with life's challenges, from which the student is to gain the knowledge, skill and wisdom to cope with history and experience with some measure of mastery and direction.

Stern College cannot escape such educational realism. Located in the very midst of megalopolis, the school finds contemporary questions of urban concern squatting at its very door, pleading for admission and engagement. Moreover, the moral and spiritual purposes so unique to Stern challenge its "citizenry" to take up these issues and to prove participatingly towards their solution.

Such a stance to one's own life and one's own community however dare not cease at Commencement. The application of truths and principles learned from teachers and peers is a constant and ongoing change. Moreover in a profound sense, this constitutes the litmus test of the authentic intellectual and moral person - at least according to the teachings of Judaism and the convictions of Jewish tradition.

This is the spirit in which I both salute and bid farewell to you the members of the graduating class of 1968-5728. Together we have shared in the sacred and precious privilege of writing another chapter in the annals of our school. With the Almighty's help, its inspiration will help guide and direct our ways beneficently in the years ahead.

naked and unashamed on the day of their creation man and woman stood uniquely flesh and blood exploring one the other with the widened eyes of truth
two alone the only youth
the only old
each in need of a hand to hold
and each desiring in the brilliant sun becoming one

together
man and woman stood
and God smiled down

this is good
this is good.

in the corner of a darkened room
where people often sat alone
two spoke in soft and eager tones
and sometimes kissed never glancing around afraid to miss
even the smallest revelations of self or soul
that combined would make two halves a whole

that gives not only life
but freedom
of love and mind
transported
a farsighted peace
not needing defense
while reality fulfilled
transcends
all pretense
and

communion starts
and there grew before the world
two true
devoted hearts

and
once again
together
man and woman stood
and God smiled down

this is good
this is good.

THE DIET NOT TAKEN
(with apologies to Robert Frost)

Two cakes in a case, they looked so good
And sorry I could not eat them both
And being on a diet, long I stood
And longed for one as much as I could Although I needed no further growth.

And then took the one, as just as fair
And having perhaps a bit more cream
Because it was lemon and looked so rare,
Though as for that, the icing there
Had given them both a shiny gleam.

And both that morning looked sublime
I didn't care to fit that gown
Oh, I kept the diet for another time
Yet knowing how lemon leads on to lime
I doubted if I should ever slim down.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Cookies and doughnuts and cupcakes hence
Two cakes in a case, so good, and I—
I took a cake, and then a pie,
And that has made all the difference.

Brenda Siegel

היינו לעם אחד בעת הנס הגדול של יציאתנו מעבדות כעם דגול. מנהיג אחד איחד אותנו תחת חסותו של הקב"ה. וכעם אחד עלינו לדרגת אנשי דור המדבר.

ומאז, אחד היו תולדות חיינו כעם. חוט השני שעבר בכל ההסטוריה שלנו הייתה נטבל בדם הדורות. בעת הצער, בעת הסבל, אחת היתה דרישת האויב — שמד או מות. כל זה נאמר עד היטלר אשר מנע מאתנו אפילו ברירה זו. אבל אחת היתה גם תכניתו — השמדת העם כעובדה פיזית. אחד גורלו של שומרי משמרת קודש ואחד גורלו של התינוק שנשבה.

אך ככל רע השעה כך גם איחוד העם תחת ענן הכבוד. בעת הצרה היינו תמיד כאחד. וסבלנו כאחד.

לפני שנה, נס מורם הייתה נראה לכל העמים שמאת ה' זאת שנצח ישראל לא ישקר. וגם אז כאחד עמדנו מאחורי צה"ל בתרומות כסף וזמן, ועברנו את המשבר בבטחון שהבורא לא ישכח את בניו בארצו. שוב, אחד בעת הצר, והוא כוחותינו.

עד כאן יוצאת האחדות כתגובה למצב הדורש הגנה עצמית לעם המוקף אויבים מכל הצדדים ובכל התקופות. זאת הגנה נגד אויב המתקיף מבחוץ ובעצם עוד קיים מצב זה במקומות מסויימים. אבל כאן באמריקה אין בעיות רציניות מבחוץ לקיום הדת.

שואלים הרבה היום אם חוסר הסכנה גרמה להתפוררות העם עד שהוא איננו אחד אלא הרבה יחידים. ומה כוחו של יחיד להלחם באויב המפתה מבפנים, המפתה להתבוללות?

אולי כדאי לנו הצעירים בזה למרד נגד דרכם של אבותינו, ואולי עלינו לשפוך לענין זה את מיטב כוחותינו כדי שתהיה תקוה ולא רק קיום לשארית שמחוץ לארץ (אם בוחר הוא להשאר בגלות).
